

How to choose your Honeymoon Destination!

1. - You and your fiancé need to make a list of your “must haves”. This will be the list of things that the destination needs to offer no matter what, things that you can’t have a honeymoon without.

2. - Take into account where you live and where you plan to travel. The greater the distance between your city and your dream destination means a more expensive airfare component, longer hours traveling and the need for extra time to recover from jetlag.

3. - Determine your honeymoon budget carefully so that you can narrow your choices accordingly.

4. - You and your fiancé need to discuss what your likes and dislikes are when you travel. Make a list of them.

5. - Determine what kind of experience you are looking for:

- Beach and relaxation; do you want an island off of the beaten path or a popular destination
- Adventure; if your main goal is going hiking, fishing, scuba diving, zip lining, horse riding, etc.
- Cultural immersion; looking to discover new cultures, taste new flavors, learn a little bit of new language, etc.
- City explorer; is your passion to go shopping, visit museums, restaurants, bars, discos.

6. - Make sure that you have or you can get all your travel documents and needs like valid passport, vaccinations if they are require for the destination, immunizations shots, visa and more.

7.- How long are you planning to stay in the destination; if you plan a 7 night dream honeymoon in Bora Bora you need to know that just flying there it will take at least 2 days from your honeymoon.

8. - Book early to make sure that you get the resort that you want and the room category that you are looking for. It's a great idea to book one year in advance with a minimum of 9 months before your Honeymoon.

9. - When choosing your destination take into account that hurricane season runs from June to November.

10. - Sometimes it's not best to travel immediately after your wedding since you will need some time, at least a day or two to recover from it.

11. - Take into account the weather in the destination, if you dream of an idyllic island you might want to travel after the hurricane season .
